Cathleen A. Booth focuses her practice on assisting in the formation of private equity, real estate, and hedge and other investment funds. She represents fund sponsors and managers of funds in the middle market, ranging from $25 million to $100 million in assets under management (AUM). She also represents institutional investors, public pension funds, private equity groups, real estate firms, family offices and high-net-worth individuals in connection with their investments in private equity funds by reviewing fund documentation and negotiating side letters.

In addition to her investment fund practice, Cathleen represents clients in private placements, minority investments and co-investments, joint ventures, strategic alliances, mergers and acquisitions, employee stock ownership plan (ESOP) transactions and general corporate matters.

She serves as a member of Katten's Recruiting Committee.
