

For Immediate Release

February 22, 2010

Contact: Jason Milch
312.846.9647
jmilch@jaffepr.com

Katten Moves Charlotte Office to New Duke Energy Center

CHARLOTTE – The law firm of Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP is pleased to announce that it has moved into its new Charlotte office space in the brand new Duke Energy Center. Katten will occupy the 28th and 29th floors of the state-of-the-art building, which is part of the Wells Fargo Cultural Campus.

Katten's new home is on track for LEED (Leadership in Energy and Environmental Design) Silver certification, meeting the U.S. Green Building Council's strictest standards for environmentally friendly development. In addition, the multi-use Wells Fargo Cultural Campus features open plazas, retail, public art displays, the Bechtler Museum of Modern Art, the Mint Museums, the Wells Fargo Auditorium, the Harvey B. Gantt Center for African-American Art & Culture, and the new Knight Theater.

"We are proud to be a flagship tenant in the Duke Energy Center and Wells Fargo Cultural Campus," said Daniel S. Huffenus, managing partner of Katten's Charlotte office. "The facilities are first class all around, from the environmentally friendly design, to the museums and theaters that comprise the cultural aspects of the complex. As a firm that has long been committed to being an active and responsible member of the community, we are excited to be a part of this vibrant development."

Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP is a full-service law firm with more than 600 attorneys in locations across the United States and an affiliate in London. The firm's business-savvy professionals provide clients in numerous industries with sophisticated, high-value legal services, with a focus on corporate, financial services, litigation, real estate, commercial finance, intellectual property and trusts and estates. Among our clients are a wide range of public and private companies, including a third of the Fortune 100, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals. For additional information, visit www.kattenlaw.com.