The Gold Series, sponsored by  UBS

The Top 100 international wealth advisers list 2005 'Most highly respected' - selected by industry peers

Compiled by email and telephone research, 2,000 UK and international wealth advisers were polled and asked to recommend fellow peers as their 'most highly respected wealth advisers'.

Wealth advisers were asked to put forward peers from any country and the selection could include any area of wealth - accountancy, trust, private banking, barristers or law. The selection includes those who were most commonly put forward by advisers. Many of the recommendations received came from those who have worked in the wealth industry for more than two decades.

Some featuring on Citywealth's inaugural list are 'ones to watch'; some are 'magic circle'. Many notable names are missing, due to the restrictive name of the title - Top 100. To address this Citywealth has plans to launch a more comprehensive wealth power list in 2006 in our new gold series of definitive guides to wealth advisers.
