Connie Fratianni offers legal insight to both lenders and borrowers in leveraged financings, securitizations and structured financings. She handles private debt financings, advising borrowers and lenders in various financings with an emphasis on leveraged lending, securitizations, restructurings and asset-based finance. Connie also provides guidance to creditors and acquirers of assets in large and complex domestic and international out-of-court restructurings and bankruptcy proceedings. Connie's clients come to her from across the transportation, health care, sports, entertainment and media, and commercial real estate industries.
