Chad Doellinger Rejoins Katten as Litigation Partner in Chicago

(CHICAGO) Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP announced today that Chad J. Doellinger, an experienced class action and commercial litigator, has returned to the firm as a Litigation partner in the Chicago office. His subject matter experience includes commercial litigation, class action defense, antitrust, securities, employment and intellectual property matters.

“Chad is a top-notch litigator, who has a reputation for being a great mentor and valuable addition to any team,” said Chairman Roger P. Furey. “We are very pleased to have him back with the firm.”

Doellinger first joined Katten as a partner in 2012. He rejoins the firm from Walmart, where he served as the Head of the Commercial & Class Action Litigation Team. While at Walmart, he routinely counseled and advised senior executives and managed the company’s most significant litigation.

“Our clients expect to benefit from attorneys, like Chad, who combine their superb legal skills with real-world experience to provide exceptional service for all their litigation needs,” said Gil Soffer, national co-chair of Katten’s Litigation practice and managing partner of the firm’s Chicago office. “Chad returns to Katten after running a litigation team at one of the world’s largest companies, an experience that will provide value to our clients.”

Doellinger also lectures at The University of Chicago Law School and was featured in Chicago Lawyer’s “40 under 40” in 2013.

Katten is a full-service law firm with more than 600 attorneys in locations across the United States and in London and Shanghai. Clients seeking sophisticated, high-value legal services turn to Katten for counsel locally, nationally and internationally. The firm’s core areas of practice include corporate, financial services, insolvency and restructuring, litigation, real estate, environmental, commercial finance, intellectual property, structured finance and securitization, and trusts and estates. Katten represents public and private companies in numerous industries, including a third of the Fortune 100, as well as a number of government and nonprofit organizations and individuals.
