Charlotte Sallabank is a partner with Katten Muchin Rosenman UK LLP. She focuses her practice on transactional, planning, advisory and dispute resolution issues regarding all aspects of UK corporate tax matters (both direct and indirect taxation).

Charlotte has particular experience in financial transactions, including structured and asset-backed financing and cross-border transactions as well as mergers and acquisitions, tax-efficient group structuring and a range of corporate joint venture arrangements, among others. She has counseled clients on the financing of aircraft, ships, power stations and other high-value assets.

She frequently presents at taxation conferences and is a regular contributor to tax publications.

Selected Experience
