COPYRIGHTS AND COPYRIGHT LITIGATION

Our Clients

Katten attorneys represent a diverse group of clients, including authors, musicians, entertainment businesses and studios, in all aspects of copyright protection. We represent some of the largest publishing companies in the world in copyright infringement and counterfeiting matters. Our practice covers the full spectrum of the commercial, media and industrial arts, including works related to computer software, fabric and product designs, visual art, music compositions and sound recordings, motion pictures, television, literature, advertising, packaging and promotional materials.

Our Services

We secure copyright protection for clients in the United States and abroad, and we handle litigation to protect copyrights and defend against copyright infringement claims. Our attorneys have played a significant role in securing a number of key US Supreme Court decisions in the area of music piracy. From initial client counseling through the preparation and filing of copyright applications, pre-litigation strategy, litigation, trials and
