Katten Muchin Rosenman LLP

INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY

Our Clients

Katten's Intellectual Property team provides a complete range of services for domestic and international clients in all major industries seeking to protect and benefit from their intellectual property and to defend claims asserted by others. Inventors and corporations alike turn to us for counsel regarding their innovations in biotechnology and life sciences, electrical and electronic systems, computer hardware and software, e-commerce and business methods, telecommunications, product design, and mechanical systems.

Our Services

Katten's seasoned attorneys develop, enforce, protect and defend our clients' patent, trademark, copyright and trade secret rights in jurisdictions across the United States and abroad. Our Intellectual Property team partners with clients to develop global strategies and programs to safeguard and maximize the value of their intellectual property, and to audit their intellectual property assets, including domestic and international licensing and transfers of technology, to ensure that these assets are correctly identified and properly protected. We manage our clients' intellectual property portfolios, including registration and enforcement of patents, trademarks and copyrights worldwide, and administration of intellectual property agreements. Additionally, we have considerable experience representing clients in high-profile lawsuits when their most valuable intellectual property is at stake.

With deep experience in mergers, acquisitions, leveraged buyouts, venture capital investments, joint ventures and other strategic alliances, our transactional attorneys identify and evaluate the intellectual property rights and technology involved in business transactions; structure the transfer, protection and licensing of these assets; and develop long-term strategies to maximize their value. We also provide guidance on new media and emerging rights, and claims involving social media, cyber torts, computer fraud, keyword advertising, pricing and the First Amendment.

In addition, our team advises on a wide range of intellectual property issues relating to the Internet, new media and social media. We help protect and enforce intellectual property involving the Internet, focusing on the protection of trademarks, trade dress, copyrights, keywords, domain names and other online content in the United States and internationally. We provide guidance on Internet governance, domain name law, and claims involving social media, cyber torts, computer fraud, keyword advertising, pricing and the First Amendment. We also work with clients to develop comprehensive online brand promotion and protection strategies, including recovery of infringing domain names through the Uniform Domain Name Dispute Resolution Policy (UDRP), suspension of infringing domain names through the Uniform Rapid Suspension System (URS), and implementation of creative strategies for managing domain name disputes.

Whether it be preparing a patent application, ensuring the continued goodwill of a brand, or effectively defending or prosecuting claims, clients can rely on Katten to help them protect, manage and capitalize on their intellectual property throughout the world.
